

3530 Dry Guide Coat

Sanding control powder

Quickly highlights surface imperfections in body filler and primer during sanding, ensuring a smooth, accurate finish. Easy to apply with the included flexible applicator, it offers effective solution for perfect surface preparation.

- ✔ highlights pinholes and scratches for a smooth surface before the final coat
- ✔ no masking needed, saving time and effort
- ✔ applicator provides even powder coating for clear visibility of imperfections
- ✔ solvent-free, safe to use without damaging materials

Area of application:

- ✔ colour: Black - for light surfaces
- ✔ colour: Blue - for dark & light surfaces

3530 Dry Guide Coat

Sanding control powder

Description:

A must-have tool for detecting surface imperfections in body filler and primer during sanding and it provides excellent coverage on surfaces. The powder is easily applied with a flexible applicator, making imperfections clearly visible and ensuring smooth and accurate finish.

Packed in a 150 g tub with added applicator, it offers a quick, cost-effective solution for perfect surface preparation before the final coat.

Step-by-step procedure:

1 Clean / degrease and dry surface 2 Remove protective seal from guide coat base 3 Press the applicator hard against guide coat base and shake 4 Apply the powder with the applicator pad

Packaging:

1x Applicator + 1x 150 g powder cartridge

■ Black

■ Blue